5. Probation Report

Probation Officer Sam McLeod attended this month's commission meeting to share with the group the diversion efforts of Placer County. Recently, the county has been hosting a monthly Youth Resource Fair. Approximately 10-20 youth serving agencies set up tables at this fair that is attended by youth and their families from the community. Youth who are on probation are required to attend. It is held the 2nd Thursday of each month. It begins with a guest speaker from one of the agencies with a specific topic of interest (i.e. anti-bullying), and youth receive "tickets" for various activities that is then followed by a raffle.

The Placer County Sheriff's Department has recently implemented a new Activity League. This is comparable to the Roseville Police Activities League providing after school activities for kids in the community such as tutoring, sports and other activities. They are currently seeing approximately 20-25 kids per day. They are looking for their own space as well as volunteers.

Probation is running a program through CSOC called Forward Thinking, also not just for probation youth. This is a program that runs one time per week for eight weeks and involves workshops on various topics such as anger management and "how did I get here".

6. Inspections

Currently House #2 and House #4 inspections have been completed. The Juvenile Detention Facility is scheduled for inspection on May 22nd.

7. June Elections

Commissioner Shinstock reminded everyone that her last month on the commission will be June 2015. That vacates the Vice Chair position and elections will be conducted in the month of June. She reminded everyone if they had an interest in Chair, Vice Chair or Vice Chair of Community Relations they should email commissioner Buller.

8. New Business

The commission had a short discussion regarding last month's visit of CFMG.

9. Community Relations
